Secure the hook in the vice. Tie in the thread and wind down to the point tying in a length of Silver Oval. Wind the Oval 4 turns backwards to form a tag, take the Oval between the 2 hooks and pull back towards the head. Secure with the thread and trim off the length of the body. Prepare a sparse bunch of Pink Bucktail and tie this in for the tail about the length of the hook. Tie in some strands of MS Angel Hair the same length. Prepare a sparse bunch of Purple Bucktail and tie in the same length. Take the thread to the head binding everything in and forming a smooth underbody. Trim off the waste. Return the thread to the tail tying in lengths of Silver wire and flat UTC Mirage tinsel as you go down. Wind the thread back to the midpoint. Coat the body with superglue and wind the Mirage up to here forming the rear body, tie in and trim off. Dub the thread with FF Midnight Star dubbing and wind to the head forming the front body. Rib the body with the wire, tie in and trim off the waste. Prepare and tie in a bunch of Pink Polar Bear to just reach the end of the hook and bind in tightly. Prepare and tie in a bunch of Pink Marble Fox the same length as the tail. Tie in some strands of Angel Hair. Prepare and tie in a bunch of Purple Tanuki to just reach past the tail, bind in tightly and trim the waste. Tie in a Pink Schlappen hackle by the tip, double and wind 2 turns and tie in. Tie in a Purple Schlappen hackle by the tip, double and wind 2 turns, bind in tightly and trim the waste. Form a neat head and whip finish. Now apply several coats of thin clear varnish to produce a smooth shiny head.
